The class of 1914, several of whom were present, presented the school with a $50 Victrola at this time.

Death of George J. Wilson

George J. Wilson, one of Morrisville's well known and highly respected residents, died at his home on Bridge street this forenoon. Death was due to hardening of the arteries and neuritis and occurred just four months to a day from the time of an operation at a Burlington hospital, when his foot was removed. Since that time he had been in a very serious condition and death had been hourly expected for several days.

George Justus Wilson was born in Fairfield, Vt., Sept. 13, 1835, one of nine children of John and Rebecca Titt Wilson. Of this large family of children there is only one surviving, a sister, Mrs. Ellen Carter. His first wife, who was Ann Partlow of Johnson, died about 50 years ago, leaving one son, Edward G., who is a well known business man of Morrisville. His second wife was Alice Peaseley of Sutton, N. H. To this union was born one daughter, Stella V. Wilson, who, with her mother, survives.

Mr. Wilson was an honored member of James M. Warner Post, G. A. R., having enlisted Oct. 12, 1863, in Co. L, 11th Vermont Volunteers. He was honorably discharged August 25, 1865.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock from the home.

C. H. Slocum and family went to Lake Elmore today, where they will spend several weeks in the O. M. Waterman cottage.

Mrs. E. H. Van Cor and daughters, Misses Helen and Doris, have returned from Burlington, where they have been spending several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Jenkins returned to their home in Bradford last Thursday, after a few days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Cheney.

Mrs. Charles Brigham has returned from Factoryville, Pa., where she spent several weeks with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ross.

Miss Myra Herrick went to Hardwick last Thursday for a few days' stay with her brother, Guy A. Herrick. Her school in Hardwick begins about Sept. 15.

At a special meeting of Mt. Vernon Lodge, F. & A. M., last Monday evening, the third degree was worked in a very acceptable and impressive manner upon a candidate.

Miss Bertha Herrick, who has been a guest for the past two weeks of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herrick on the Randolph road, expects to return to Manchester, N. H., Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Cutler of Barre have been guests the past few days at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Woolcott, Mr. and Mrs. James Wakefield and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Daniels in this town.

A meeting for the purpose of organizing a gun club will be held at the club rooms this evening. A range is to be fitted up on J. M. Kelley's land at Sunset Park. All interested in shooting are invited.

Mrs. Carolina Eaton and daughter, Miss Ellen Eaton, of Chicago arrived in town Monday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gile. They expect to spend about a month with friends in this vicinity.

R. W. Cheney, whose farm house and horse barn in the west part of town were burned several weeks ago, has begun the work of rebuilding this week. The house will be a small, modern structure and will be erected on the site of the old building.

Mrs. Ellen Carter, who lives with her son, Rev. John W. Carter in Wisconsin, is spending some time at the home of her niece, Mrs. N. S. Graves, having been called here by the illness of her brother, George J. Wilson, whose death occurred today.

Miss Winnie Bedell, assistant bookkeeper in the Citizens telephone office, is taking a two weeks' vacation. Miss Bedell and sister, Mrs. F. C. Peck, left Sunday for Hartford, Conn., for a visit at the home of their cousin, B. L. Blakeley. Mr. Peck drove them to Waterbury in his automobile.

Henry Glenwood, who has occupied the Powers house on the corner of Main and Congress streets for the past year, has sold his household goods to Lorenzo L. Wood. Mr. Wood will occupy a part of the house and will continue the popcorn business. Mr. Glenwood and family will spend some time in different parts of Vermont and expect to go to Jacksonville, Fla., this fall.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED

Young Man With Bad Record Captured at Waterbury by Sheriff Geo. E. Town

Sheriff George E. Town made a lively trip through Washington County last Friday night, which resulted in the arrest of Fred Barnett, who springs into notoriety as a horsethief of much promise. The arrest was made at Waterbury Center, Officer Town meeting his man in the road, driving toward Waterbury street.

Barnett, who worked for Mark Shaw in the south part of town in May of this year, gives his home as Middlesex, Vt. He was suspected at that time of being the party who stole E. G. Foss' team from the Methodist church shed on the night of May 31, and his confession since arrest substantiates those suspicions. Traces of the team stolen were found in Orleans County at that time and a description of the driver having been obtained a few days later, Sheriff Town made a thorough search through that section and Canada without success. Last Friday Mr. Foss learned that Barnett had been in town and at once got in communication with the Sheriff, who put in an all night search before locating Barnett, who was driving at the time a team which he had stolen in Canada.

Barnett was brought at once to Morrisville and on Saturday morning was arraigned before Justice LaFountain, charged with horse stealing, State's Attorney Maurice prosecuting. Barnett, who had previously confessed the crime to Sheriff Town, reiterated his confession at the hearing and waived examination. He was held under $2,000 bonds for the December term of County Court, which he was unable to furnish and was committed to jail at Hyde Park. He told the officers that while he is only twenty-five years of age, he had served one term in the House of Correction at Rutland of seven months for stealing a bicycle, and that he was now out of State's prison at Windsor on parole, where he had been serving a term of not less than three years nor more than seven years for this same offense; and on being questioned could give no reason for his continued thefts.

Sheriff Town and E. G. Foss returned Tuesday from St. Johns, Que., where they recovered the latter's team, where Barnett confessed he had left it. The owner of the team stolen in Canada came here and proved his property. He was taken back to Canada by an employee of the Bedell and Lunt stable, who drove Mr. Foss' team home yesterday.

Barnett asked that Judge L. P. Slack order an information filed against him, and that a Special Term of County Court be called to receive his plea of guilty and sentence him. This will doubtless be done Thursday.

Sheriff Town did good work in locating the thief, which is additional proof that "home grown" detective force usually does the business.

A Record Worth Mentioning

In referring to the death of William M. Small, who had lived on the same farm in this town his entire life, the farm having been in the family 104 years, this paper stated that it was doubtful if the record could be equalled in Lamoille County.

Mrs. Mary McNall, a granddaughter of Daniel Blaisdell, who was one of the first settlers in the town of Cambridge, gives the information that the farm now occupied by Leon P. Blaisdell in North Cambridge, has been in the Blaisdell family for 117 years. This is surely a record worthy of mention and may bring out still other testimonials that Lamoille County is a good place to live in as well as the best county in Vermont in which to be born.

Young Men Premium Winners

The amateur stock-judging feature proved a popular one at the Lamoille Valley fair this year. There were 10 young men in the contest, which was conducted under the supervision of Sheldon Miller, Agricultural Instructor at P. A., and R. Lloyd Chaffee, who holds a similar position with Stowe High school.

The rules regulating the work of expert judging of cattle were followed and the work of the contestants, showed much knowledge of the subject. George Thomas of Morrisville won the first prize of $5.00, Howard Lang of Stowe, $3.00; Emmons Sargent of Stowe, $2.00.

Randall Child, George Thomas and Misses Gwendolen Smith and Beryl Powell were in Barre Monday, making the trip by automobile.

C. J. Thomas, who was at home during the fair, left Friday for Brattleboro and Jericho, on business for the United Construction Company.

Miss Saidee Smalley left last Saturday for Millerton, N. Y., where she will teach the coming year in the fifth and sixth grades of the public school of that place.

Morrill, the grocer, is making a special offer of 18c per pound on autopsically good line of Clover Honey for the balance of the week. See communication page 8.

A Practical Temperance Talk

A union temperance meeting was well attended last Sunday evening in the Methodist Episcopal church. Howard E. Kershner, a representative of the Prohibition National committee, gave a good, practical talk on the subject, "Limelight on the Liquor Problem." About thirty men who attended the meeting promised not to support any party that would not embody in its platform a plank looking to the abolition of the liquor traffic. Rev. W. E. Baker, Rev. W. T. Best, C. F. Smith and Rev. Mr. Howard, who accompanied the speaker, had seats on the platform.

Ostiguy-Senesac

The first wedding ceremony performed in the new Church of the Holy Cross, in Morrisville, was solemnized yesterday morning at 7 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Crosby of Hardwick, when Miss Alice Margaret Senesac, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Senesac, was united in marriage to Emile Ostiguy of Marieville, P. Q. The wedding was witnessed by the immediate family of the bride and a few invited friends. The bride wore a bronze colored suit, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She was given in marriage by her father and the groom was attended by his brother, Horace Ostiguy, of St. Albans. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents on Wabau Avenue, the bridal couple leaving immediately after breakfast for a trip through the White Mountains.

The bride, who formerly was a teacher of French in a Canadian institution, came here about a year ago and has made many friends during her residence in Morrisville. The groom is a prosperous young lawyer of Marieville, where they will reside.
